

I hope this website offers you useful information and links to provide you with the most current information about our State Senate. Please visit often and share with me what is important to you. Together we can build a stronger, brighter future for our state.

Jack